1. Bremen (C41) - Schwanewede: As a new airfield, used by Russian and Polish aircraft, hangars and workshops are still in the process of construction; technical equipment is also in the process of being installed. The airfield site, $3\frac{1}{2}$ kms x $1\frac{1}{2}$ kms, is the former wooded area, levelled during the war, of the University Clinic.
2. Burg-Stargard (U65) - Neubrandenburg (U66): Airfield for heavy bombers is being built.
3. Greves (Nr Lauenwinkel, Z70): A new airfield is being constructed.
4. Perleberg (Z70): As of 9 July a Russian airfield with two large barracks is located in Perleberg.
5. Potsdam (Z63): [REDACTED] the Russians are planning to enlarge the Bernauett Airfield to a major installation.
6. Schwerin (T46): Many air corps officers have arrived in Schwerin. There are many new tanks for gasoline and ammunition being built on the field.
7. Wittenstock (U11): A large Russian airfield is located at this town.
